Rosemont Transition Year Policy

Due for review: 2020

Scope and rationale of the TY Policy:

Rosemont's TY Policy acts as a guide to the whole school, subject departments and modulated subject in developing and promoting the TY programme.

Introduction and relationship with Rosemont's Mission Statement

Rosemont Transition Year Programme is an integral part of our secondary school. Transition Year is compulsory for all students (except in exceptional circumstances) We see this programme as an opportunity for our students to build on the academic achievements and the character development attained in Junior Cycle in order to prepare them for the Leaving Cert and for their future role in society. The Transition Year Programme is carried out in a partnership between parents, teachers and students. Rosemont embraced the TY concept from shortly after its inception in the belief that it was a powerful means to promote the personal development of our students as envisaged in our mission statement. In the years since then we have been consistently impressed by the great and, more importantly, the many small steps in personal self discovery made by our students in the course of their transition year. These steps frequently relate to discovering areas of talent and aptitude in both themselves and each other as a direct consequence of the teaching, learning and life experiences provided by the programme which also interlinks effectively with the Whole School Virtue Programme. The response from both students and parents has been consistently enthusiastic and we are grateful for their support and suggestions both in the past and up until today.

Rosemont's Mission Statement

Rosemont is an academically stimulating school with a Catholic ethos that encourages girls to live their faith in the ordinary events of every day.

Christian faith is the reason why each individual girl in Rosemont is respected and valued, whether she is a believer or not. Our educational mission draws life from ideals that are sincerely Catholic; these same ideals are open to people with a wide array of beliefs and backgrounds. This partnership is possible because the Catholic faith is a truly humanising faith: the salvation it offers is a salvation that makes us more genuinely human. St. Josemaría Escrivá wanted people to discover in their Catholic faith a basis for unity and solidarity in working with others to build up an authentically human ecology in the world.

Rosemont provides a simple presentation of Catholic faith and a dynamic sacramental life and chaplaincy. Rosemont also seeks to express and live the Catholic faith in the following ways: through an atmosphere of open intellectual inquiry, a deep respect for personal freedom and emotional development and preparation for future professional life. This emphasis on the connection between personal faith and professional preparation at the service of others is characteristic of what Opus Dei seeks to contribute to the school.

Introduction to Transition Year for Parents

We invite all the parents of our future TY students to attend an information evening in the 3rd term of each academic year. This is held on the same night as the current TY students present their end of year achievements to their own parents. The parents are presented with an outline of our transition year programme and they have the opportunity to answer any questions that the parents may have. The feedback from parents was that they found this process gave them a much greater grasp of the opportunities presented by the TY programme. At the end of the presentations, parents and students of 4th year can mingle with the 3rd year parents. This greatly facilitates third year parents receiving an informal and spontaneous account of the Transition Year experience. Equally it affords the TY students with yet another opportunity to express how they have personally benefited from the programme.

Gifted, Talented and Special Needs Provision

Rosemont is a mixed-ability school which aims to provide an environment which encourages all students to maximise their potential, and this includes students who display some form of exceptional ability or talent.

Highly able students are acknowledged as having particular learning needs requiring enhancement to their educational programs, so that they remain highly engaged and active learners.

The TY programme aims to challenge and affirm the full spectrum of abilities of participating students and to use differentiation in class and in activities. In some cases this means specific activities targeted at students with particular learning abilities or particular learning needs. In the majority of cases the policy means creating activities within and outside of the classroom which allow for a positive and meaningful learning experience for the full ability range.

Individual cases which have been identified as requiring special learning support continue to be monitored to ensure ongoing progress for the given situation. Over the years we have been happy to note how many of the modules that students experience in Transition Year prove to be particularly constructive in building self confidence among those with special needs. In particular we have noted that the teamwork involved in social work, adventure sports, the mini company etc have affirmed students who have special needs due to academic, personal or family challenges.

Assessment

In Rosemont assessment is used to maximise the TY Programme. Knowledge of students' progress is a stimulus to improve subject materials and the implementation of their content. A wide variety of assessment is encouraged in order to form a real picture of the effectiveness of the programme for students.

The following methods can be implemented to assess students' growth in overall maturity, skills and academics:

- Presentations to parents, teachers and fellow students
- Dialogues with Class Teachers and Coaches
- Peer Assessment
- Project Work
- Evaluation of modules
- Exhibition of work
- Written, practical, oral and aural assessments
- Dialogues between parents and Coaches
- Parent Teacher subject meeting
- Six written reports by teachers on students' performance throughout the year.
- Feedback from employers, speakers and personnel running field trips
- Personal reflections in coaching and assembly
- Attainment of certificates
- Study of students' response to speakers, field trips

Certification

Upon completion of TY all participating students receive a special Certification Pack including documentation and confirmation of all the key modules and activities in which they have been involved. In order to highlight and celebrate the importance of each students' achievements, these Packs are presented at the school's annual awards ceremony.

Evaluation of the TY Programme and Policy

In Rosemont the whole school is involved in the evaluation of TY. It is a regularly scheduled item in staff meetings. TY co-ordinator has a key role liaising with core teachers, management, parents and all subject teachers. Students provide a written evaluation of their TY experience at the end of the school year. TY co-ordinator meets with management for an end of TY year audit with a view to planning the new academic year. Rosemont's coaching system ensures a student specific monitoring of the success and effectiveness of the current TY programme. Each subject has an internal review process as outlined in the detailed TY subject plans.

Transition Year Social Work

Introduction

In Rosemont we have a long history of all students participating in aspects of social work in the local community. During Transition year we strive to build on the foundations which have been laid.

The TY work with the Student Council and the management to organise in the school the Hospice Coffee Morning; the Sports Day; Healthy Living Week; the school musical; the Fund raisers; the Christmas lunch in conjunction with the St Vincent de Paul.

Aims

- To harness the generosity of our young people through allowing them to interact with the needs of the elderly and vulnerable of our community
- Through this experience to nurture a profound respect and appreciation for the individuals they meet and get to know
- To build on links with the local community to the mutual advantage of both the students and the community based projects
- To develop the students' social awareness as a necessary life-long skill
- To develop the students' communication skills with people from a variety of personal situations
- To build students' self esteem and confidence in a setting that is others-centred and challenging
- To encourage self directed learning

Evaluation: Conversations informally with the TY coordinator and also with coaches.

Exchange with Senara School, Madrid

Duration: February – March

Aims:

To deepen students' love for, and knowledge of Spanish and Spanish culture.

To develop independence and maturity.

To build on life skills and the ability to live abroad.

To deepen self confidence after living away from home.

To encourage an awareness of life outside school and their own homes

To encourage students to become responsible for their own learning and improvement.

To promote flexibility and adaptability in students.

To develop student's communication and social skills.

Content:

Students will live with a Spanish family in Madrid and attending school in Senara school.

Students will go into separate classes appropriate to their level of Spanish.

Students will fully participate in family life and take part in all family activities.

They will also host a Spanish student who will live with their family prior to, or after their visit to Spain.

Application process:

1. Complete and application form – which is as received by a member of the International Department by a set date
2. Write an essay in English to explain why you want to take part in this language and cultural exchange. It has to be typed; 2 pages; font size 12; Due on a set date. The essay must be signed as received by a member of the International Department when you leave it in the International office.

3. Students must take extra Spanish language classes to prepare them for family life.
4. They must sign a behaviour contract before leaving for Spain. Parents must also sign this code of behaviour.

Students must display a willingness to become fully involved in family life and to communicate with their family.

Assessment:

Students will attend classes in Senara and a report will be sent home at the end of their time there. Senara's programme coordinator will monitor the girls closely while there and will act as coach for them. Rosemont's programme coordinator will be in regular contact with Senara's coordinator with regular updates as to the girls' progress.

Evaluation:

Programme coordinator from Rosemont visits the girls and meets with the programme coordinator and evaluates the girls' progress.

Students will self-evaluate while in Spain by means of keeping a daily diary of their time there. Students do an oral evaluation with Spanish teacher on returning to Ireland.

Organisation of TYCoordinator Role:

The aim of the TY co-ordinator is to ensure that the year is educationally beneficial, enjoyable, maturing and challenging for the students and that each student will achieve her potential in this year.

The task of the co-ordinator involves the following:

- Overseeing that all events are organised to a high standard and well in advance
- To ensure that parents and students have adequate notice of upcoming events
- To enlist the help, support and ideas of all staff involved in TY
- To evaluate how the year is going regularly with the students
- To attend any courses/meetings relevant to the TY and incorporate where possible ideas and experiences from other teachers
- To keep teachers well informed of any changes in timetables via email and the Staff notice-board with ample notice
- To enthuse the rest of the staff as to the immense value of TY
- To provide teachers with any TY material already in the school or which may come during the year which would be relevant to the particular teacher
- To tackle any problems which might arise during the year promptly and efficiently so as to diffuse the problem
- To ensure that the TY programme is written up and available
- To evaluate the TY programme each year and ensure that teachers evaluate it

Evaluation of the task:

The TY coordinator and DP meet regularly to plan, prepare and evaluate.

At each staff meeting a similar slot will be provided where the co-ordinator can:

1. Express any concerns they might have
2. Inform Staff of upcoming events
3. Enlist ideas or help from other staff members

The rest of the staff will also have the opportunity to voice their opinions on TY at this meeting.

Curriculum Principles

Curriculum content is a matter for individual subject departments having regard to DES guidelines, the requirements of students and the view of Parents/Guardians. In drawing up the curriculum, the school also takes into consideration opportunities offered by employers and the wider community.

The TY programme provides a bridge to help pupils make the transition from the Junior Cycle environment to one where students will take greater responsibility for their own learning and decision making.

While the programme lays a solid foundation for Leaving Certificate studies, a clear distinction is maintained between the Leaving Certificate syllabus and the TY programme.

The Transition Year programme allows students to attend classes in a wide variety of different Leaving Cert. subjects, before they are required to make their final selection at the end of fourth year. Our programme is challenging, features intellectual content but allows students to mature and develop in the absence of exam pressure.

The programme caters for the world of work, personal development and social awareness.
